Name _____ Class _____ Date _____ Score _____

Language Arts 10 Writing Exercise Week 11

Aztecs, Incas and Latin America

Directions: Read pages 949-954. Then, read the two possible explanations for the parallel events of the story, then choose ONE for this writing exercise.

1. A modern-day motorcycle rider, who subconsciously feels like a sacrificial victim while recuperating from an accident in the hospital, dreams that he is a prisoner.

or

2. Two different people, occupying the same space in different time periods, are thrown into each other's realities by their respective traumatic experiences.

Instructions: You are a lawyer. Write an argumentative essay/speech/paper, that you will use before a judge and jury to support your explanation of the events using one of the possible explanations above AND evidence from the story. Remember to use the Jane Schaffer model for paragraph construction.

Scoring Guidelines: Accuracy 34% Neatness 33% Completeness 33%