

Worksheet Chapter 10

Directions: Answer the following items using complete sentences, proper punctuation and grammar.

1. Select information from your own experience for a good speech -

2. Demonstrate how you learn from observation -

3. Conduct an interview (write it out) -

4. Conduct a survey (write it out) -

5. Observe more accurately -

6. Locate a book on speeches in the library -

7. Select and use appropriate reference books in preparation for a speech -

8. Select and use newspapers and magazines in preparation for a speech -

9. Prepare note cards for a speech -

10. Explain how to use the internet and cite sources for a speech -

Directions: Define each of the following terms.

1. call numbers - _____
2. card catalog / internet data base - _____
3. citation - _____
4. follow-up questions - _____
5. interview - _____
6. knowledgeable source - _____
7. leading questions - _____
8. neutral questions - _____
9. note cards - _____
10. primary source - _____
11. random sample - _____
12. reliable source - _____
13. secondary source - _____
14. survey - _____

Directions: Research “great speeches” online and find one that appeals to you. Identify the author/speaker, the title of the speech, the audience, purpose and the contextual background of the speech, e.g., intended effect, lasting result, overall significance, etc...Write at least five sentences from the speech that interest you the most and explain why the sentences interest you.

Author/Speaker: _____ Title of Speech: _____

Audience/Purpose: _____ / _____

Contextual Background: _____

Five(+) Sentences : _____

Interesting because ...
